BODY RECOVERED.—A letter from St. Mary's county, Md., to the Baltimore Sun says: "The captain of an oyster pungy from Crisfield picked up the body of a lady affoat near the Eastern Shore of the bay, and finding upon it a "scapula and other articles which are generally worn by Catholics, he proceeded to the Potomac and landed it at a house in St Inigoes neck, which he knew was the property of the Jesuits. Strange to say it proved to be the identical house in which Mrs. Tarlton was born and the body was identified as hers. The body of her child has also been found on the bay shore near "Point no Point." These are the last of the missing victims of the Express disaster except Dr. Barch."

The Baltimore American says:—"Another body, that of H. Lowenthal, a passenger of the steamer Express. was brought to this city yes-terday by Mr. Lewis, clerk of the Potomac Transportation Company. It was removed to Lowenthal's late residence, on Eden street, and subsequently interred in the Hebrew Cemetery. The body was found on Holland's Island.—
Lowenthal was a native of Poland, twenty eight years of age and pursued the vocation of a peddler. Mr. Liwis, who was sent down to the scene of the Express disaster for the purposa of identifying and recovering any other bodies of the drowned, ascertained that seven or eight corpses had been interred at different points, but did not succeed in identifying any others than those already published.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.-Old Dominion Com-mandery, Knights Templar, left here on the steamer Lady of the Lake this evening for Norfolk. Previous to their departure they paraded the principal streets, escorted by the Alexan-dria Light Infantry and headed by Dorch's Band. Both commands had a diess parade and inspection on Washington street, between King and Cameron sts, and on their departure the Templars received a sainte from the "coon killer," which was served for the occasion by members of the Light Infantry. The Commandery will return on Friday morning. A number of citizens accompanied the Templars en their trip. During their stay in Norfolk their quarters will be at the Atlantic Hotel.

Many houses along the line of march this evening were decorated with flags and the side walks were alive with lookers on. Both organ-izations presented a very handsome appearance.

Tilden's Revenue Tax.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11 .- Judge Choate in the United States Court, to day, rendered a decision in the case of the government against M. L. Sykes, treasurer and secretary of the Chicago and Northwestern railway on motion to show cause why attachment for contempt should not issue against him for not producing the books of the company in court. This case grew out of the suit of the government against Samuel J. Tilden to recover alleged unpaid revenue tax. This action has again gone over for the term by an agreement of counsel.

Dead.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11,-The Hon, N. B. Judd identified with State politics, died at his home this morning of paralysis. He had been chair-man of the republican State Central Committee, Collector of this port and a member of Congress, and was appointed minister at Berlin by President Lincoln. He was 66 years old.

Carl Brown, Dennis Kearney's private scoretary, read a speech at the sand lots in San Francisco yesterday, in which he stated that Kearney designedly defeated Butler in Western Massachusetts. Kearney decided three weeks before the election to beat Butler, but thought he could accomplish more by seeming to be Butler's friend than by coming out against him; so he stayed with him until the week before the election, when he made his very incendiary

BEWARE OF CHEAP EXCITANTS, AND use, if you need a tonic stimulant and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The liquors of commerce, even when they are not adulterated, colic, regulates the bowels, cures dysentery and fail to produce more than a temporary exhilaration, usually followed by a depressing reaction, anything but beneficial to a weakly constitution.

Not only do the potent botanic ingredients combined with the alcoholic of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters minister to the health and vigor of those who use it, but the basis—pure old rye, the ficest and most salubrious liquor distilled, is no mean promoter of a healthful condition of the digestive organs. Its presence in the Bitters is essential to preserve their vegetable constituents from fermentation, and it unquestionably augments their remedial value. Few medicinal preparations of a proprietary nature have ever received such strong commendations from medical men.
